FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

Performance Monitoring

Session 10

Knowledge Management Portal (KaMP)

May 6, 2015

A web-based repository of development information resources designed to improve sharing of data and information between the USAID/Jordan Mission, local implementing partners and development organizations within Jordan

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

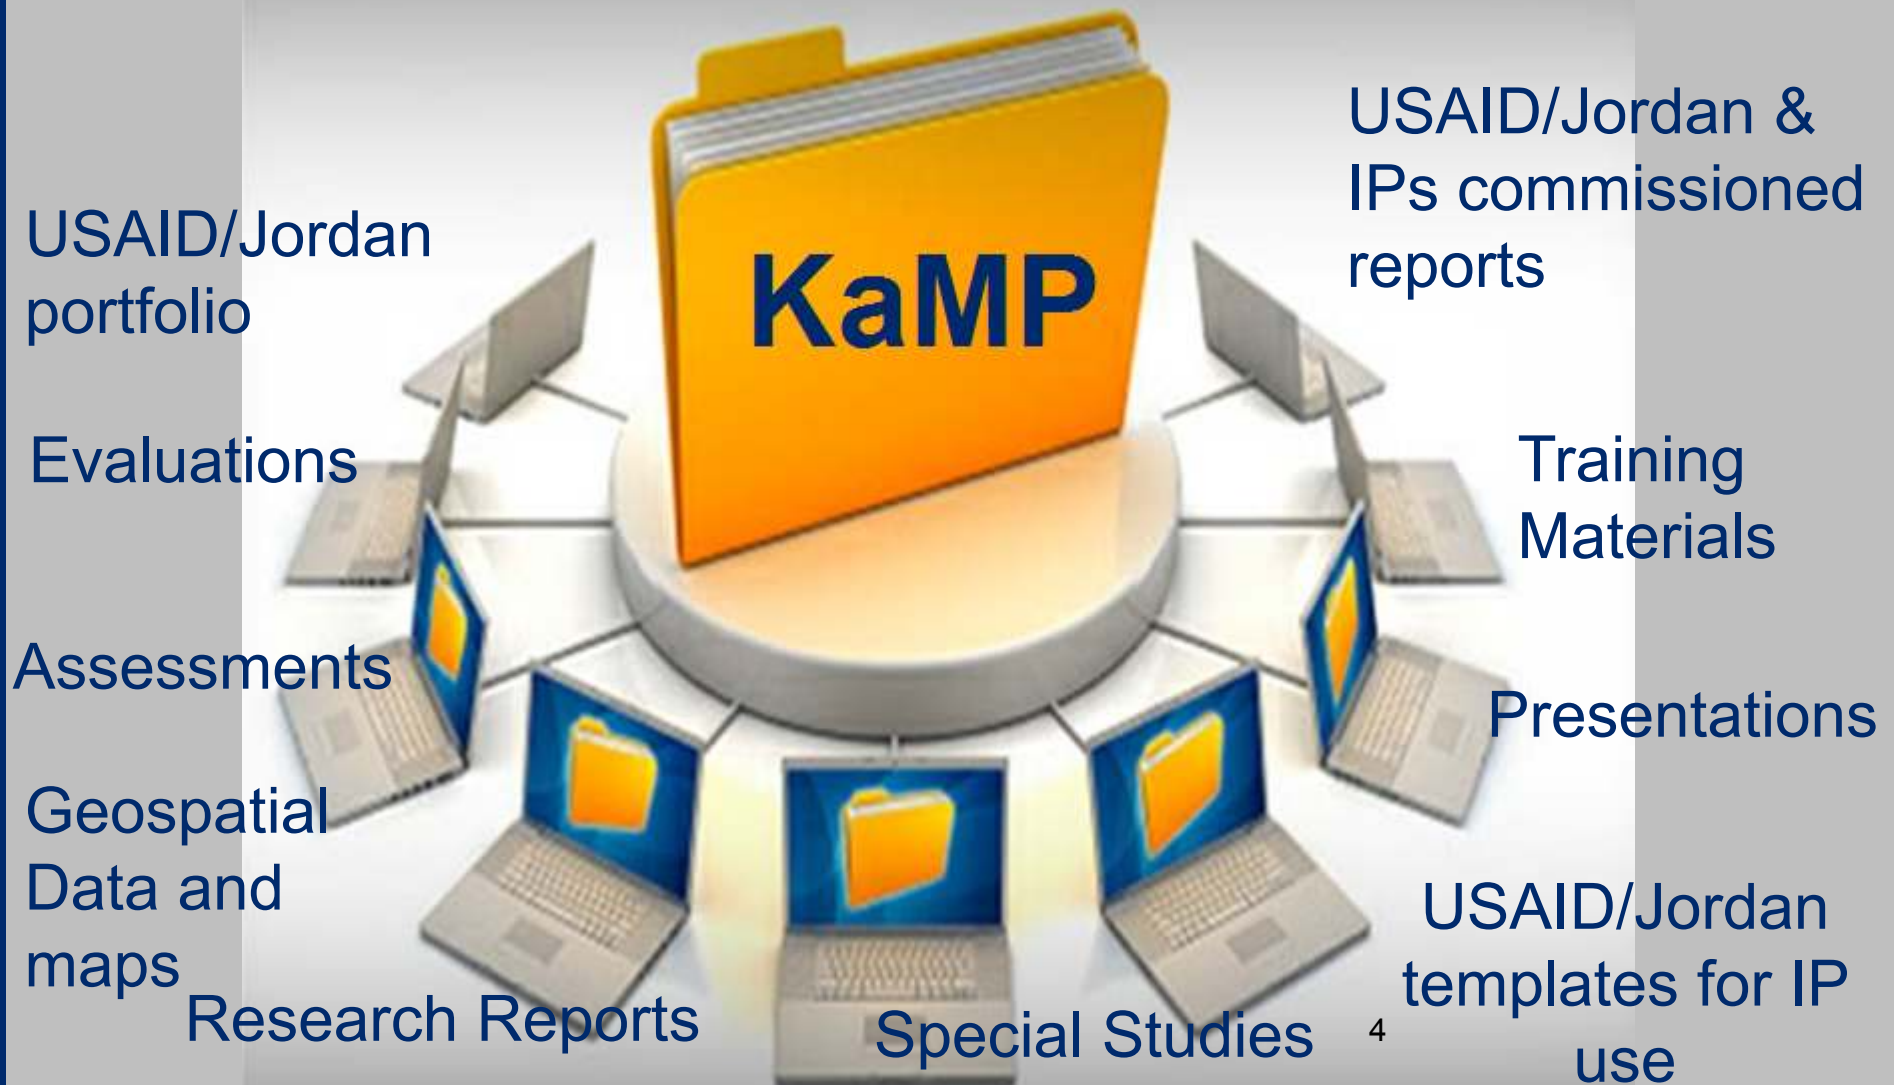

KaMP Key Audiences

- The KaMP will be available to all interested development partners in Jordan and will be populated with resources identified and uploaded by:
 - Staff from USAID/Jordan
 - MESP
 - IPs and other portal users

Resources Vs Collections

- Resources can be any type of file or simply a URL, which is then flagged with relevant meta data that make finding it easier
- Resources generate previews of their contents offering additional ways for users to interact with that data online
- Collections group together separate Resources that relate to each other for a specific purpose
- Collections should generally not be used to collect all the Resources on a specific subject area as that is what Tags are for

<https://usaidjordankmportal.com/>

- User registration
- New Partner Organizations
- Organization membership has three different levels of access:
